At twenty-year intervals! Ye Editor's father, Everett Schug, was editor of the first annual ever put out by the Berne High School—that was in 1915. In 1935 his sister, Mrs. Anna L. Byrnes, was editor of the publication issued then. And now your humble servant edits!

Those with experience in the editing and publication of a yearbook are fully aware that much of its success is due to the advertising manager and this hustling attractive young lady was really good.

Without the efficient and valuable supervision of Mr. Tharp this undertaking would lack much of its merit.

CLASS HISTORY

On the fourth day of September four years ago, fifty-seven newcomers entered B.F.H.S. As in preceding years, we had trouble finding lockers and getting to the right classes at the proper time. After the preliminary hardships, we finally began to find our places in the whirl of high school life. Our first taste of this new life was our election of class officers. We chose Alan Eichenberger, president; Ben Sprunger, vice president; Charles Fiechter, secretary; and John Kirchhofer, treasurer. In the spring of our first year everyone had a wonderful time at a party at the State Forest.

We moved into our sophomore year by electing Ben Sprunger, president; Otto Schug, vice president; Evelyn Pfister, secretary; and Norma Inniger, treasurer. We made our presence very obvious by winning the yelling contest and being the first class to hold the plaque that goes with this title. To show that next year we would be of Junior level we chose our class rings in the spring of 1953. We tried the novel experience for our class party of having a scavenger hunt, which proved to be rather tiring but very interesting.

As we entered our third year of high school, we began to feel the responsibility of increased activity. Charles Fiechter, Ben Sprunger, Ramona Starffer, and Norma Inniger were elected class officers. The first really big event of our school life was the staging of our junior class play "Room for One More." We had our annual spring party in the form of a variety show followed by a box social. We completed our junior year by entertaining the seniors at the traditional Junior-Senior Reception, the theme being "Count Every Star."

In the fall of 1955 there were mixed emotions as we began to realize that we were nearing the end of our high school days. Of the fifty-seven who originally composed the class of '55, fifty remained. In order to make the most of our final year we elected the following officers: Charles Fiechter, president; Ben Sprunger, vice president; Theda Heller, secretary; and Norma Inniger, treasurer. In March we presented our senior class play "Papa Was a Preacher." Living up to our reputation of doing things out of the ordinary, we had a Backwards Party as our final class get-together. Finally came the Junior-Senior Reception, the excitement of Senior Week, Baccalaureate, and Commencement.

As we are graduating, we do not forget those who have departed—Marvin Graber and Hazel Balsiger.

THE CLASS PROPHECY

A DRAMA IN ONE ACT
By E. L. Habegger, Playwright

Time: 1965

Setting: Here and there and everywhere.

(Music low—House lights dim—Curtain rise—Production begin.)

RON: Roger and over. Hi! I'm RONALD MYERS flying around in my space ship. (S.E. Jet) What was that? I think I'll radio that plane and find out who is it. (Talks on radio) Why it's JOHN HEARE! He's a jet test pilot. Say, John, do you know where any of our old classmates are?

JOHN: OTTO SCHUG is a lawyer in Oklahoma City.

RON: I think I'll cruise over and see him. By, John.
(Time lapse)

RON: Hi, Ott. How are you doing?

OTTO: I'm feeling rather ill. I just underwent major surgery a few weeks ago and guess who my good-looking nurse was? KAYE SUDDETH. She told me that KAREN LUGINBILL, MARILYN LEHMAN, NEVA HIRSCHY, and MARIE LEHMAN are also in the nursing profession.

RON: Say, who owns that new gun shop across the street?

OTTO: Our old friend, RAWLEY JONES, II. And did you know that ALAN EICHENBERGER is a chemistry professor at the University of Texas.

RON: No, but the other day on television I saw HARRY and LARR GERBER playing their accordions and RUBY VELEZ was the guest singing star.

OTTO: That sounds great. RAMONA STAUFFER has her own program on our local TV station.

RON: Oh, really? I think I'll blast off for California. (Sound of rushing air)
Well, here I am. There's the large Sacramento speech defect clinic. That must be where HELEN BAUMGARTNER is teaching. Over on the other side of the city I see the Egly Tabernacle where NORMA and AL are serving. While I'm in California, I'll just breeze over to Hollywood.

(Sound of spaceship. Pause. Spaceship lands.)

RON: Look at those new Oldsmobiles. I wonder who owns that lot? (walks over to lot) BILL REYNOLDS, are you the owner of this corporation?

BILL: Of course I am. CAROL McCRORY is my efficient secretary. Just now she's out to lunch with ANNE STAHLY, who is the secretary for an M.G.M. director.

RON: Did anyone return to our home town?

BILL: Yes. CAMERON WEBB teaches commercial subjects in the Berne-French High School.

RON: I think I'll blitz over to Berne and see for myself.

(Roar, large cloud of dust.)

RON: It's good to be back in our ol' city. That enormous building must be our new school. Hello, CHARLES FIECHTER. What are you doing here?

CHARLES: I teach Ag here in school. I was just going to take my wife to LOIS and PAT'S Beauty Shoppe.

RON: Oh. Did any other classmates stay here?

CHARLES: PHYLLIS and COLLEEN live here in town and are busy keeping house and family. BOB AMSTUTZ is the manager of the new, big I.G.A. store. It was constructed by BOB REINHARD'S construction crew.

RON: They sure did a swell job. Are DUANE BLUHM and LESTER SMITH farming?

CHARLES: Yes, they are. BILL STUCKY is the owner of a nationwide chain of department stores.

RON: I guess I'll fliz up to Chicago. Perhaps I'll meet some one there. (Flash)

RON: So this is the big city. EILEEN BAUMGARENER, what goes here?

EILEEN: Hi, Ron. LINDA HEYERLY, ZENITH STRAHM, and I are in charge of an orphanage here in Chicago. DONNA MAE HABEGGER works in the Moody Bookstore. Yesterday I received a letter from ELAINE HABEGGER. She teaches fourth grade at Harrisburg, Pa.

RON: I'll go over and visit.

(Zip.)

RON: Hello, Elaine. How's the schoolmarm?

ELAINE: Just fine. SALLY BEER and CONNIE LIECHTY are teaching here too. They have the first and second grade. Last week our fifth and sixth grades won the basketball tourney. JOHN KIRCHOFER is their coach.

RON: Well, well. Where's OMER SPRUNGER by now?

ELAINE: I read in the paper that he joined the Jimmy Lynch Thrill Drivers. Oh yes, LA VERNE HARTMAN is the Conservation agent for the big state forest in the upper part of the state. I believe KEITH AMSTUTZ is a TV technician in New York City.

RON: Oh, he is? I'll dash that a-way and check up on him.

(Va-Va-Va-Voom and off he goes.)

RON: Howdy, Keith? How's the T.V.T.?

KEITH: Just all right, I'd say. We've got some real nice gals working for us.

RON: Who?

KEITH: SHARLENE HUFFMAN, KAREN LEHMAN, and THEDA HELLER are secretaries here on fifth floor. Yesterday DAVID CANEN gave his first weekly comedy show. It was terrific! CHARLES LEHMAN was the guest trumpeteer.

RON: Wow! Where is EVELYN PFISTER by now?

KEITH: She's a receptionist for a doctor in Hollywood, Fla. Last she flew up to visit JOAN NEUEN, who is a psychologist here in New York. Evelyn said that CAROL LANTZ was the plane stewardess. I wonder how she got interested in flying. Ha! And talking about planes, BEN SPRUNGER is a top-notch jet pilot in the Air Force; he's thinking about making flying his career.

RON: So there we are.

FOR THE RECORD . . .

The varsity basketball team enjoyed a very successful season by compiling a record of 14 wins and 6 defeats, this being the most successful season in many years. The team's won and lost record was the best of all the county teams. The schedule that the Bears had this year was a rough one and the Bears proved they had the winning spirit in each game. The sportsmanship that the team members showed was outstanding and they should be congratulated for this fine aspect.

The team elected as their captains Ben Sprunger and John Kirchhofer, the only seniors on the squad. The most valuable player as selected by the players was John Kirchhofer. The assist trophy was won by Tom Ehrsam and the free throw percentage trophy by John Kirchhofer.

TRACK

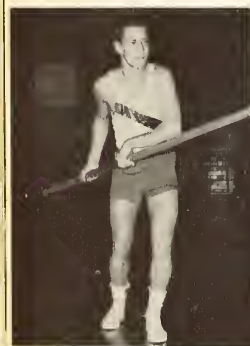

This year track was chosen to be our major spring sport. In previous years it was considered a secondary sport. The enthusiasm for track was shown by one of the largest turnouts in many years.

Berne had six returning lettermen from last year; one of which was Albert Egly from Adams Central. These boys plus other individual artists and two strong relay teams helped to rack up many points for Berne. It was one of the most successful seasons in many years.

ACTIVITIES

"THE NIGHT OF JANUARY 16th"

Something new and unusual in the way of plays was given this year by the Junior class when they presented, on February 3 and 4, The Night of January 16th, by Ayn Rand. This tense and stirring drama, which kept the audience's interest from the opening scene until the final curtain, was a portrayal of the murder trial of Karen Andre.

Karen, played by Lucille Liechy, had been accused of murdering her employer, Bjorn Faulkner, and the entire play centered around the trial, its introduction of key witnesses, and the conflicts of the two attorneys, Prosecuting Attorney Flint, Dean Hendricks, and Defense Attorney Stevens, Jerry Flueckiger. Other major roles were assumed by Georgia Haecker, Grace Habegger, Rebecca Liechty, Madelyn Clauser, Pat Bausermen, Tom Ehram, Larry Neuen, Tony Liechty, John Nussbaum, Myles Eley, Lee Sprunger, Ken Neuenschwander, Mahlon Gehman, and Kenny Reinhard. Minor roles were taken by Nancy Smith, Connie Von Gunten, Ruth Ann Zimmerman, Berdell Lehman, Lynn Sprunger, Sandra Gilliom, and Bill Rumble.

One unique feature of the play was the selection, from the audience, of the jury which decided the fate of Karen Andre, and also decided the ending of the play to be used by the players. On both nights the jury found Miss Andre "not guilty." This well-written comedy-drama will afford the Juniors some well deserved and fond memories of a full evening of entertainment when they gave "The Night of January 16th."

"PAPA WAS A PREACHER"

On March 17 and 18 the Seniors presented a three-act comedy, "Papa Was a Preacher." They did an excellent job under the most capable direction of Miss Beth Blue and everyone enjoyed both participating in the play and observing it. The cast of characters is as follows:

Edwin Porter, Papa	ALAN EICHENBERGER
Pearl Porter, Mother	EVELYN PFISTER
Hugh Porter, the eldest son	BEN SPRUNGER
Cecil Porter, a senior in high school	DAVE CANEN
Raybon Porter, the Don Juan of the clan	BOB REINHARD
Janette Porter, young and romantic	CAROL LANTZ
Edd Porter, handy with a camera	BILL REYNOLDS
Alyene, the youngest Porter	THEDA HELLER
Helen Ludlow, a charmer	ANNE STAHL
Lucy Smith,	KAYE SUDDETH
Jenny Smith	KAREN LEHMAN
two smitten young ladies
Jeffrey Cole, also a preacher's son	JOHN KIRCHHOFFER
Miss Jones, an opinionated maiden lady	LINDA HEYERLY
Bride	LOIS BAUER
just married
Groom	OTTO SCHUG

The play, a combination of fun, difficulties, and gladness, is a dramatization of the unique novel, "Papa Was a Preacher" by Alyene Porter.

For the minister's family, growing up has tribulations that most children escape. They can't roller skate in public because some of the parishioners object. The boys cannot protect their cotton patch from a gang of "toughs" because their father opposes fighting. The daughters of the richest parishioner try to make the Preacher's sons date them—or else! The trouble-maker, Miss Jones takes photographs of the boys defending their cotton patch, and threatens to show them to the Bishop. She even objects to Alyene reciting poems by Shakespeare! To make matters worse, Cecil puts on an acrobatic clog at school, is expelled (again it's Miss Jones!) and runs away. And all these disasters occur just as Reverend and Mrs. Porter are about to celebrate their silver wedding anniversary. Weaving through all this is a delightful teen-age boy-girl complication in which two want to date the same girl while their sister is being courted by a would-be musician who serenades her with his new trumpet. Through all the pranks and troubles there flows a lively stream of merriment and the play ended with a real thrill that the audience loved.

Our Future Farmers of America Chapter began its sixth year of activity in January of this year. Some of our activities have included sponsoring a Broiler Barbecue, the Father and Son Banquet, operating the school farm, and conducting a pest contest.

We sold magazine subscriptions and Scotchlite for farm safety; also we sold a new variety of oats.

Our motto is as follows: "Learning to do; Doing to learn; Earning to live; Living to serve."

MASQUE AND GAVEL CLUB

A new club joined the activity ranks at Berne High School this year. Early in September, about 40 enthusiastic students met and organized a new speech and dramatic club, calling themselves the "Masque and Gavel." As stated in the group's constitution, the purpose of this organization is to experience citizenship in our community, to stimulate interest in and provide opportunities for our own educational development, especially in the art of effective public speaking, cultivating dexterity in dramatical expression, for training in leadership ability, and to afford social activities for the members of the club.

After the impressive initiation ceremony in October, the club's activities were varied and numerous. Besides their regular bi-monthly meetings, the Masque and Gavel had several large and important projects completed during the school year.

Realizing that "where there's a will, there's a way," the group sponsored and opened Berne's first Youth Center at the Winner House. This project not only shows a lot of hard work on the part of the club, but also has provided the entire high school with a recreational center for those otherwise "dull evenings." Other club projects were the annual Christmas play, and several other programs worked up for civic and community groups.

The club programs were designed for an increased appreciation for speech and drama and included several outstanding guest speakers, make-up demonstration, attending plays, and several programs where the entire club participated. To round out their social life, several not to be forgotten parties were mixed in with the regular club meetings.

Masque and Gavel officers who led the group through their first year of activity were:

STUDENT ADVISORY COMMISSION

For some time there has been a felt need for student participation in school government. The Classes of '54 and '55 as Juniors devoted some time to a study and development of a form of organization for this purpose. This year at the request of the school administration for an immediate representative body, the Student Advisory Commission was formed. It is a temporary organization which, we hope, will provide a sound basis for the development of a form of student participation in school government.

In its present form it consists of two representatives from each class who meet approximately once a week. The student representatives develop student opinion in classroom discussions in designated subject areas. A committee of faculty representatives works with the SAC.

"Congratulations, you graduates. You're moving up in the world. So, good luck in whatever's ahead.

"But say, before you leave, let's think a bit about the past few years. How about those favorite classes, friends and all the fun? Hasn't it been great!

"And you know what? It could only happen here. Yes, free, fine education is part of the good ole U.S.A.

"Don't forget it when you've become a solid citizen with a family and all. 'Cause you'll need to remember ... to beat the guys who'll want a change.
